

FORT ORD PUBLIC LANDS

Inter-Garrison Rd.

TRAIL MAP

The fine sands on most of the trails show animal tracks in great detail. Look for evidence of snakes, lizards, bobcats, mountain lions, rabbits, birds, and sometimes even insects.

Yes, mountain lions do live here.

While there haven't been any attacks on humans, it is important to keep children and animals within sight. If you come in contact with a mountain lion, don't run. Try to appear larger by raising your hands. Pick up small children. Avoid bending over or crouching. Fight back if attacked. Report any mountain lion sightings to the California Dept. of Fish and Game, (831) 649-2870 or (831) 649-2576.

About Explosives at former Fort Ord...

While every effort has and is being made to clear dangerous materials, 60 years of military occupation make it possible that live rounds and explosives remain in public areas as well as posted areas.

DO NOT TOUCH unfamiliar objects, especially metal. Instead, MARK THE LOCATION and CALL THE FEDERAL POLICE at (831) 242-7851 or (831) 242-7924.
